

JOE MARTIN KEEPS' RIGHT IN SPOTLIGHT

He Simply Could Not Help it if He Wanted To—Motion to Censure the Speaker—Former Canadian Parli-

Toronto, April 2.—A special to The Toronto Star says that well-known fighter in Canadian politics, Mr. Joseph Martin, now member of Parliament for East St. Pancras, has raised interest in the political world by the notice that he has given of a motion to censure the Speaker for not allowing a question to be put to the Prime Minister. The last successful motion of censure on the Speaker occurred in 1695, and the opinion, Therefore, seems to be that there is not another member of the House who would have the hardihood to put forward such a motion. There have been whispers to the effect that the relations between the Speaker and Mr. Martin since the latter entered the British House have been of the most pleasant character, and, slightly or wrongly, Mr. Martin has come to the conclusion that Mr.

Lowther is unwarrantably autocratic and needs to be put in his place.
While Mr. Martin may not be alone in the views he takes of the Speaker, it is probable that he will be left alone to bell-the-cat.

Mr. Martin will succeed in making a place for himself in English public life. I think that the opinion of the average member of the House of Commons is that he will not. However, when in a recent conversation with a member of the Cabinet I took an adverse view of Mr. Martin's ances of success, the quick and emphatic reply was: "It would be very easy to underrate the man. He has picked up his constituency in scientific style, and his outdoor meetings on Sunday morning's are beginning to attract some attention."

The result of negotiations that are taking place between the party whips and certain prominent Canadians, one of them at least is domiciled in Toronto, we should hear that the Canadian representation will be still further increased.

The intervention of the government in the coal strike has been

One phase of the labour trouble in this country at once strikes a Canadian, and that is the existence of bitter class feeling. I am told that this "militated" greatly against a settlement during the recent troubles in South Wales where there was much personal hostility. The Englishman is the product of a different environment to what most Canadians know. He passes through the so-called public schools, and later on the universities, where he learns to look down upon the workingman. When men so trained come into actual contact with the sturdy independence of the British worker friction at once arises.

Dominion Offices.

When it was known that Australia was going to open new offices in London, Canadians naturally expected a similar enterprise on the part of their government. Recent rumors had it that the Dominion was acquiring a site in the vicinity of the Commonwealth purchase in Aldershot. There is no doubt that Mr. Borden will follow Lord Strathcona's advice, when its dissemination is disclosed.

device. There is divergence in Canadian opinion as to the best position for the Dominion offices. Aldrich, the Strand, and Charing Cross are the sites which have been most frequently mentioned.

STRIKE WILL END DESPITE ADVERSE VOTE OF MINERS

Leaders of Miners' Federation to Declare Strike Terminated on Thursday.

NORTH OF ENGLAND MEN FOLLOW LANCASHIRE LEAD

Disturbances Have Occurred in Districts Where Non-Union Men Have Resumed.

London, April 3.—Albert Stanley, secretary of the Midlands Miners' Federation and member of the House of Commons, practically announced the end of the national coal strike in the United Kingdom this afternoon.

Addressing a mass meeting of miners at Caneok Chase, in Staffordshire, Mr. Stanley said that it was now impossible to secure the necessary two-thirds majority of miners in favor of continuing the strike. Mr. Stanley has access to the figures and knows the intentions of the miners' Federation, which are not available to the public. He advised the miners of Caneok Chase district, who have voted against resumption of work, to return to the pits without delay, and they have decided to resume work tonight.

Postmaster-general Herbert Louis Samuel, addressing deputations which called on him in the House of Commons, also stated that he was confident the strike would be declared over when the Miners' Federation meets tomorrow. "The fact that King George is leaving for Sandringham tomorrow to spend the Easter vacation is regarded as a confirmed sign that the trouble is at an end."

London, April 3.—All the miners in the northern counties of England and a portion of those in Scotland have followed the fighting lead of the miners of Lancashire and declared against the resumption of work in the minimum rates of wages until the minimum rates of wages have been definitely fixed. This will give a majority of miners in the United Kingdom in favor of the strike, but it is expected that the Federation will nevertheless declare it to be terminated.

The result of the ballot among the miners shows that the government was not as unpopular as the mine, who want the principle of the minimum daily wage translated into a fixed daily wage.

Some of the district boards, which are to settle the local rates of wages, have been appointed, but they have not been able to decide upon their chairman, so these appointments will have to be made by the government. The number of miners working in the pits is increasing daily and rapidly. Upwards of 16,000 miners are now working in Northern Wales coal fields, which is double the figure of yesterday. There has been some rioting in different parts of the country. At Dunderfermalis, Scotland, the union miners started a detachment of police, which was protecting the non-unionists, who had resumed work. At Pontypool, Monmouthshire, there also have been disturbances. A crowd of striking miners smashing windows in the homes of the men who returned to work. The coal which is being raised is taken chiefly for the railways.

SEPARATE SCHOOLS TO BE ESTABLISHED IN MANITOBA CITIES

Notice of Proposed Amendment to School Law is Given in Legislature.

NO PROVISION MADE FOR SEPARATE SCHOOL BOARD

40 Roman Catholic Pupils Shall Demand a Separate Teacher.

Winnipeg, Man., April 3.—The amendment to the school law to be made by the Manitoba government at this session of the legislature provides for separate schools in the cities, but not for the rural areas. The character of the intended amendment is now known. Notice of the change was given yesterday in the statute law amendment submitted by Hon. G. H. Caldwell, minister of education. The amendment in question will contain three clauses to the following effect:

1. A new definition of the word "school" to mean any school whether containing one room in a school building or composed of several rooms. In the latter case each room in the building would become a "school" for the purpose of the Act.
2. A provision that all school boards must furnish school accommodation for all school children of school age within their school districts.
3. A provision that in any school where there are forty children of Roman Catholic parents they shall be relieved from the burden of supporting separate schools for their children by Roman Catholic parents. The clause, of course, is in effect a "school" for the purpose of the Act, which would permit a Roman Catholic teacher for practically every city school, running as it were a separate school within a public school's four walls. The advantage to the clause which would permit a Roman Catholic teacher for practically every city school, running as it were a separate school within a public school's four walls. Lord Charles Beresford, Naval Lloyd George Praised for His Statement of Government's Intention to Keep Ahead of Germany.

Potomac, Eng. April 3.—Speaking here last night Lord Charles Beresford, first lord of the admiralty, for the reform inaugurated in the naval administration all these things Lord Charles contended he had personally advised. In consequence he had been dubbed "the funk." At present we were only thinking of the heart of the empire, but we could not afford to trust local and parochial defenses for our cutting Dominions as our trade routes were insufficiently protected. As we had not enough cruisers to undertake this duty we should repudiate that "rotten declaration of London."

The admiralty anticipates that the German navy bill will pass with a consequent increase in the fighting power of the German navy. The six million pounds surplus which the budget shows is therefore appropriated as a British navy "nest egg."

This in the kernel of yesterday's budget statement though it was not made very plain, possibly owing to extreme care which the chancellor of the exchequer took to state the government's policy diplomatically and pacifically. It is a "two keels to one policy in respect to any shipbuilding by Germany west and above those specified in her naval program."

The Times today holds this decision as was one under the circumstances. The Daily News, the chief government newspaper, is silent regarding this aspect.

The Daily Telegraph says that Lord George is perhaps the most surprising member of the House of Com-

Eighty ships, April 3.—That there is no possibility of a sympathetic strike of freight handlers in this district was the statement made early today by the officials of the railroads with Canadian connections and by the freight handlers themselves. The move yesterday from Winnipeg to the west for support in case of a strike apparently came as a surprise here. There is apparently no such organization as "The Brotherhood of Railway Freight Handlers" here. One railway official, who said the charge ninety per cent of the freight handlers for one of the Canadian roads, said he had never heard of the organization.

Objection to Application of Mr. McKendrick, Licensing Committee, on the Grounds that License is Not Required and that it is too Near the Packing Plant.

A meeting of the license commissioners yesterday considered an application for a new hotel license for Mr. McKendrick, proprietor of a boarding-house near the packing plant at North Edmonton. Objection to the license was raised by Mr. Aycarter, secretary of the Edmonton and Rural Reform League, on the ground that the license was not required and also on the ground that the premises for which the license was sought was too near the packing plant where a large number of people were employed. The same objection was raised to the license by Mr. Aycarter when an application was made by a different party in November last. The commissioners hearing the application were T. J. Macleod, J. D. McFarlane and D. C. Bayne. The application was adjourned until the 17th inst.

"I-WON-T-WORKERS" ARE PROCEEDING TO SEATTLE

Contractors on Grand Trunk Pacific Expect Trouble in a Few Days.

Vancouver, B.C., April 3.—Delegates from the International Workers of the World (I-Won-T) organization on the prairies are on their way across the Rockies through the Yellow Head pass to carry disaffection among men employed on the Grand Trunk Pacific, according to advice received today from Edmonton by the contractors, whose headquarters are in Vancouver.

It is declared that an organized effort is being directed by the I. W. W. leaders on the prairies toward stopping work on the entire sections of the Grand Trunk Pacific, both in British Columbia and on the prairie. It is expected by the contractors that within the next few days work will be stopped that the trouble has spread to the Grand Trunk Pacific. It is intimated by sub-contractors on the Canadian Northern railway construction that approximately 10 per cent. of the men who are now on strike on the grade between Hope and Kamloops have come to the prairie. It is declared today that hundreds of them have come to the prairie and that many others intend to proceed to that city. Vancouver's population of strikers is said to be decreasing.

ROOSEVELT SERIOUS MENACE TO COUNTRY

Judge Hinshelwood Declares He is More Dangerous to the United States as a Demagogue Than Her Most ardent Enemies.

New York, April 3.—"I am the man who sentenced Herr Most to imprisonment for endangering the public peace by the publication of his anarchistic doctrines. Judging Theodore Roosevelt and Herr Most side by side I am forced to the conclusion that of the two Mr. Theodore Roosevelt is infinitely the more dangerous to the welfare of the country. He is the villain of the Court of Special Sessions in this city, made the statement yesterday in confirmation of a widely circulated report emanating from Pittsburgh that he had said something of the same nature to a personal friend there.

"I did say it," frankly admitted Judge Hinshelwood, "and the man I said it to was Dr. Holland, of the Carnegie Institute, of Pittsburgh, my highly esteemed friend." We were discussing the latest phase of Theodore Roosevelt's ruthless ambition, and I said: "It was my duty to send Herr Most to the penitentiary to end off Theodore Roosevelt in the hands of the American people. I trust that their verdict will sentence him to a life of retirement because he is far more dangerous to the peace and prosperity of the country in his demagogic than was Herr Most in his anarchism."

NO THOUGHT OF RACE FOR THE SOUTH POLE

Wife of Captain Scott Declares Her Husband's Expedition Was For the Sole Purpose of Making Scientific Observations at both Poles and in Antarctica.
London, April 3.—Mrs. Scott, P. Scott, although naturally somewhat disappointed that her husband is not returning, is delighted at the prospect that he will get another season of scientific investigation in the antarctic for she takes the keenest interest in his work. She said to an interviewer: "It would be the greatest pity if my highly skilled and trained expedition, one of the most that had the opportunity of a second year of study. Originally the lack of funds necessitated hampering the activities of the expedition into the space of one year, but everybody who has any interest in the subject must be glad that a more thorough program is now decided upon."

"If my husband feels any regret it is that it delays his return to his naval duties. His one desire is to resume them after the expedition is over. His position in that service has always occupied the foremost place in his enthusiasm."

"As regards a 'race', so far as my husband is concerned there never has been one or any thought of one. Indeed I think it more than probable that until the early part of next year he will know nothing whatever about the race in which he is popularly supposed to have been engaged."

"He stuck to his original plan and in almost every respect carried out a program that was drawn up more than two years ago."

PEUNAL MEETS WARM RECEPTION IN FRANCE

Taken From Regina on Extrajudicial Proceedings, Confesses to Murder and Narcotics Escapes at Hands of Hostile Crowd in His Home Town.

Paris, April 2.—Riot in which hundreds of people took part, and in which the examining magistrate was stoned, following the confession of murder by Emil Oscar Peunard, who was arrested by the Mounted Police in Saskatchewan, Canada, upon a warrant of extradition. Peunard was arrested near Willow Beach, and, after a hearing in the Supreme Court at Regina, when he strenuously fought extradition, he was ordered to be extradited to stand trial in France. He was brought back to Saint Leere, the village in which the crime was committed, and confessed.

Montevideo, Uruguay, the examining magistrate, and Maria Peunard, public prosecutor of Arras, went to St. Leere today for the purpose of investigating the crime, which took place at this small village on July 10, 1910.

The legal proceedings had been kept secret, but hardly had the carriage containing the murderer arrived at the village when the whole population rushed to the house where the tragedy had taken place. "A group of police officers and cavalry arrived to prevent the mob from entering the village, but they were unable to allow it to enter the hazy legend. Overcome by great emotion and weeping bitterly, Peunard described the details of the crime of which he admitted being guilty. The murderer's return was almost tragic. Several hundred farm laborers rushed at the carriage, which they succeeded in reaching, when the mounted police prevented the prisoner from being exposed to the violence which he so ardently had suffered.

Being unable to reach the prisoner, the rioters proceeded to the station, following the magistrate, whom they abused to such an extent that the police had to interfere. Hardly had the magistrate entered the train when a shower of stones descended on the carriage in which they were, several hitting the compartment where Peunard was confined. Only the rioter cut his wrist by breaking a glass in the waiting room. The excitement is enormous in the village and a petition is being circulated for the public prosecutor to take up the inquiry concerning an old affair in which an old man was found dead in his well, and which public rumor accuses Peunard of having perpetrated with intent to rob.

EPIDEMIC OF FORGERY PREVALS IN THE CITY

Cases in Which Passing of Worthless Checks is Involved Have Assumed Formidable Proportions Recently—Editorial Notes One of Jacob Reimer.

An epidemic of crime, with checks as the chief cause for complaint, seems to prevail in Edmonton, and the authorities are unable to account for so many cases of men taking chances of spending a term in the penitentiary for a few paltry dollars. A well known local official said this morning that the list of offenders had grown to formidable proportions in a comparatively short time, and the surprising feature of the situation was that a great majority of them were young men, even boys in some instances, who dabbled with worthless checks and evidently expected to escape the consequences of their rash conduct.

"I cannot conceive what prompts a man to think he can pass a bad check and get away with it," said this same official. "In the whole catalogue of crimes this is the easiest to detect and convict the person guilty of committing it. The means of identification are very simple and positive proof, readily obtainable in almost every case. Crime of every description will sooner or later be detected, but there is no trouble at all securing evidence against the men who attempt or actually do pass a worthless check."

As illustrating the continuity and rapidity with which justice works in this class of cases, Jacob Reimer was brought into the District court this morning on a charge of attempting to defraud two local firms out of a bill of goods by the bad check ruse. He was up on two charges, one of trying to get a mirror, auto strap, tassel, pocket knife, compass and a quantity of wire, valued at $14.00 from the Northern Hardware company, and of seeking to purchase a suit of clothes and other wearing apparel to the value of $20.00 from the William Sugarman company, to the value of $21.90. Reimer pleaded not guilty. The salesman whom Reimer approached and did business with at the hardware store testified that the accused gave him a check, bearing date of March 12, on the Bank of Commerce. Reimer declared he had never in the bank but he had declared that he did not have an account there. No one there had ever done any business in that particular bank.

Several days later, on March 13, Reimer tried the same thing at the Sugarman store, giving a check on the Bank of Montreal. Conditions were found to be identical as in the case of the previous check—no account at the bank and never had one. Reimer was thereupon arrested and he has been in jail ever since.

During the progress of the trial Reimer's actions were peculiar. He was either feigning or else did not understand what it was all about. While he refused to admit his guilt, Reimer took no part in the trial except to request that the evidence be interpreted to him in German, which language he speaks. He did not ask the witness any questions and appeared to be quite different to the outcome. The testimony left the court no other alternative than to find him guilty.

Reimer one stated that Reimer was not "wise," and his head in the prisoner's box tended to confirm the statement.

"He was wise enough to sign checks," said Judge Taylor. Crown Prosecutor Glasgow, who appeared for the prosecution, observed the defendant clearly, but made no comment. Little is known about Reimer, who is about 35 years of age, and was remanded to the custody of the mounted police until 30 "check" this afternoon, pending further investigation and probably sentence at that hour.

Adolph Johnson pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing a Mauer pistol from Reimer. Clark, on March 29, Judge Taylor will pronounce judgment later.

LOQUACIOUS COLONEL WAS VERY INDISCREET

Panama Canal Incident May Result in Exclusion of Americans From German Coast—Col. Goethals is Severely Criticized for Unpleasant Incident.

Berlin, April 2.—It is not altogether in keeping that the Deutsche-Kaiser affair may become a diplomatic matter. It is held here that Col. Goethals was guilty of the most brazen and unpardonable indiscretion in publicly revealing the details of a private luncheon conversation with the emperor. This indiscretion is branded as conduct which would mean cashiering from the army if he were a German officer. Col. Goethals made public the fact that the Kaiser advised the U. S. and to fortify the Panama canal against Great Britain and Japan.

The incident is embarrassing in the highest degree to the representatives of the U. S. in Berlin. It opens in most glaring fashion the old and delicate question of American participation in the Kaiser, and puts each nation into the hands of the court party, which opposes His Majesty's participation in the trans-Atlantic visit. The opinion is already ventured that the Kaiser's indiscretion will be extremely difficult, if not impossible, to get through.
